42ND ANNUAL
CALIFORNIA
PRESERVATION
CONFERENCE

PASADENA
HILTON HOTEL
MAY 10-13
2017

The 42nd Annual California Preservation Conference makes a long-awaited return to Pasadena to celebrate the 40th anniversary of the founding of the California Preservation Foundation. We share the anniversary celebrations with our lead partner, Pasadena Heritage. The conference takes us into Pasadena's historic neighborhoods and surrounding communities to learn of the challenges of preserving the built environment and looks to the future of the preservation movement in an age of ever-changing technology.

MOBILE WORKSHOPS

THURSDAY

May 11, 2:00–5:00 pm T ♿

Hands On: Documenting Pasadena

This mobile workshop will give participants the opportunity to discover hands-on the topics covered in the "Analyze This" classroom session, from macro-level SurveyLA data capture to micro measurement tools and architectural photography. You'll examine laser scanning and other non-destructive evaluation (NDE) tools that can measure and document interiors of buildings. See how ground penetrating radar and thermal imaging can assess the hidden components of buildings not visible to the naked eye.

May 11, 2:00–5:00 pm T ♿

Affordable Housing and Historic Preservation Tour

Heritage Housing Partners (HHP) is the only non-profit organization in California promoting long-term affordable homeownership through the preservation of existing historic homes and the construction of new, contextual homes. To date, HHP has sold over 80 affordable homes to income-qualifying homebuyers and has 120 units in development, including everything from bungalows designed by anonymous builders to apartment buildings by Greene and Greene. Get a behind-the-scenes tour of HHP projects in Pasadena while closely examining entitlement, construction, and financial challenges of breathing new life into historic buildings for first-time homebuyers.

FRIDAY

May 12, 2:00–5:15 pm T ♿

Historic Little Tokyo in the 21st Century — Protecting Cultural Identity, Affordability, and Mobility for a New Generation

Tour Little Tokyo to see how the "Sustainable Little Tokyo" initiative addresses development pressure, affordability, and transit infrastructure to ensure a healthy, equitable, and culturally-rich neighborhood for future generations.

May 12, 2:00–5:00 pm T ♿

Pasadena's Iconic Civic Center

Pasadena's Civic Center was originally conceived between 1922 and 1926 by the planning and architectural firm Bennett, Parsons & Frost and was rooted in the City Beautiful movement, with an axial arrangement of public buildings in monumental Mediterranean styles. Since its genesis, planning trends for the Civic Center have come and gone. You will examine the effects of these trends. Examine the primary historical buildings, as well as buildings associated with Urban Renewal that were later modified by New Urbanism, which attempted to restore major components of the original Bennett Plan. End the tour with a review of proposed development projects.

STUDY TOURS

WEDNESDAY

May 10, 9:00 am–12:30 pm T ♿

Historic San Gabriel Mission District Walking Tour

The San Gabriel Mission remains one of the best preserved missions in California. This special access tour by expert guides visits the historic Mission District, including the Lopez de Lowther adobe, museums, and the iconic Mission Playhouse. The Playhouse was dedicated in 1927 and built by John Steven McGroarty for his famed "Mission Play." Today the theater looks much as it did when it opened, complete with tapestries presented by the King of Spain, a beautifully carved and painted ceiling, a fully operational Wurlitzer Theatre Organ—which will be demonstrated—and chandeliers that replicate the lanterns used on Spanish galleons.

May 10, 9:00 am–12:30 pm T ♿

Adapting a Historic Stadium for a New Century

The Rose Bowl in Pasadena is one of a very few National Historic Landmark sports facilities in the nation. This in-depth exploration of the iconic stadium will illustrate the challenges and solutions realized in a six-year construction project that transformed the Rose Bowl into a technologically and economically viable venue while retaining the integrity of "America's Stadium." The tour leader has 20 years' experience with the assessment and rehabilitation of two NHLs: the Rose Bowl and the Memorial Coliseum.

May 10, 9:00 am–12:30 pm T ♿

Exploring Los Angeles' Union Station: History, Architecture, Rehabilitation and Future Vision

Since 1939, Los Angeles' Union Station has captivated multitudes. Learn about the station's history, architecture, rehabilitation and master plan. Travel by Metro Gold Line light rail from Pasadena to Los Angeles' Union Station. Designed as an ode to Los Angeles' Spanish past, Union Station's architecture highlights Southern California life. Now undergoing an extensive rehabilitation and upgrades to meet twenty-first century travel needs, current projects at

TRACKS

Analyze This: 40 Ways to Capture Reality

● Explore a range of tools, methods and technologies for documenting existing buildings and capturing the detailed characteristics of our heritage. Whether you want to map the historic assets of an entire city, record a structure, or just investigate a recurring damp patch, this track provides an overview of the many options available. Beginners will discover tools; experienced professionals will look at advanced uses of technology in preservation. Participants may get their hands dirty through interactive workshops and more!

Fostering Resiliency and Preservation in the Face of Natural Disaster and 21st Century Change

● The concept of resiliency is more than preparing for and responding to natural disasters. Resilient communities must adapt to a wide array of additional stresses, including climate change; income disparity; technological change; and shifting social norms. This track explores the challenges and opportunities in developing the capacity to respond to natural disasters and 21st century changes, while conserving our shared heritage.

From the Ground UP: Cultural Landscapes

● Explore the variety and intricacies of documenting, treating and managing cultural landscapes. Sessions will address historic landscape design, managing multiple layers of significance, changing climate challenges, and documenting diverse resources on Historic Route 66. Learn from the ground up!

Bridges to Inclusion: Linking Equity and Historic Preservation

● Explore the nexus between socio-economic equity and historic preservation. The discussions and case studies that make up this track highlight the multifaceted challenges, efforts, and victories encountered by professionals seeking the conservation of California's diverse heritage. Join us as we cover topics like obtaining formal designation for culturally significant resources and making historic housing affordable to contesting gentrification in historic neighborhoods.

The Best Laid Plans: Case Studies in Preservation Planning

● Explore the often complicated issues facing historic preservation planners using a variety of interesting and engaging real world examples. Sessions address appropriate infill construction in historic districts, campus planning, issues in preserving a City Beautiful-era civic center, financial tools, and applying preservation standards to historic infrastructure. Don't let your project go awry!

Union Station will provide behind-the-scenes lessons in adapting a National Historic Landmark railroad station into an efficient intermodal transportation hub now serving over 70,000 people a day. This tour involves extensive walking. Please let us know if you have special needs.

May 10, 1:30–5:00 pm T

Pasadena Bungalow Courts: Then & Now

Pasadena is the original “Home of the Bungalow Court,” with nearly 200 built between 1909 and WWII. Styles ranged from Craftsman to Tudor, Spanish Colonial Revival—even Art Deco. Get an overview of this unique architectural type and its history. Visit at least two signature bungalow courts, including National Register-listed Gartz Court and Bryan Court, with interior visits. Visit other bungalow courts, time permitting.

May 10, 1:30–5:00 pm T

Restoration and Seismic Retrofit of Los Angeles City Hall

Tour the iconic Art Deco 1928 Los Angeles City Hall. Get an inside look at the Rotunda, North and South Hallways, City Council Chamber and Board of Public Works Session Room. Ascend to the 27th floor observation deck for spectacular views. You will get a rare glimpse at the building’s base isolator system and moat. Wear comfortable clothing and closed-toe shoes to access non-public spaces. Photo ID and liability release required. Part of this tour may have limited access. Please let us know if you have accessibility needs.

May 10, 2:00–4:00 pm T

Historic Highland Park Walking Tour

Follow the Highland Park Heritage Trust on an exclusive tour of Highland Park’s iconic historic sites. You’ll get a glimpse at layers of history in this compact, downtown designated district, from its Native American roots, to Spanish Land Grant, to downtown commercial district and automobile-oriented, Route 66 corridor. The Highland Park - Garvanza Historic Preservation Overlay Zone encompasses over 4,000 structures, including over 50 Historic-Cultural Monuments. Visit ‘Chicken Boy’, the Highland Park Masonic Temple, Highland Theater, and the Manning’s Coffee sign—perhaps the first neon sign in Los Angeles.

SATURDAY

May 13, 9:00 am–4:00 pm T

Pastoral Pasadena

Explore four twentieth-century Arroyo residential landscapes with a landscape architect and landscape historians. Following a cultural landscapes session at the Gamble House, we’ll explore two residential Arroyo Arts & Crafts landscapes through the interpretive cultural landscape lens. Next, we’ll visit two Japanese-style gardens: the masterwork Storrer Stearns by Kinzuchi Fujii and the King Residence gardens designed by Howard Oshiyama, located under the soaring Colorado Street Bridge. Boxed lunch included; space limited!

May 13, 9:00 am–4:00 pm T

Saving Pasadena: 40 Years of Preservation Progress with Pasadena Heritage

Pasadena Heritage Executive Director, Sue Mossman and other knowledgeable guides will give you an inside glimpse of iconic Pasadena. Visit some of the city’s most beloved places, including Old Pasadena; the Civic Center, a National Register Historic District; the National Historic Landmark Rose Bowl Stadium; Arroyo Seco; the 1913 Colorado Street Bridge; and the 1947 Bullocks/Macy’s Department Store. Immerse yourself in Bungalow Heaven, the first local Landmark District; the Hillcrest area, featuring the Greene and Greene-designed Blacker House; Gartz Court; and more. Along the way, you’ll learn strategies for successful advocacy illustrated by real-life examples.

WORKSHOPS

WEDNESDAY

May 10, 9:00 am–12:00 pm T

PART II—Displacing Gentrification: Perseverance & Preservation of Urban Latino Community and Culture

This workshop will include advocates on the frontlines of Los Angeles Latino Neighborhoods threatened by gentrification, including Boyle Heights, South Central, Eagle Rock, and Highland Park. Explore how other Latino neighborhoods have enacted preservation and other land use tools to protect their communities. Case studies of each neighborhood will help train attendees in the most effective tools to stem the tide of development in low-income, historic communities.

May 10, 1:00–5:00 pm T

Community Engagement Workshop

This half-day interactive workshop will help you engage your community to meet specific preservation goals. Using everyone’s experiences and best practices, we’ll explore broad issues and create specific action plans for mobilizing the right people, at the right time, in the right way.
