Become a Sponsor!

Recognition | Benefits | Business networking opportunities

The benefits are listed in the sponsorship chart on the reverse side. Please take time to review and select a level for your company. Your support will ensure that California's historic places and its diverse cultural heritage will be enjoyed and protected for future generations of Californians. Sponsorship includes benefits and exposure at the following major events.

The 43rd Annual California Preservation Conference Palo Alto Sheraton Hotel, May 17–20, 2018.

Well-attended, well-received, and well-reviewed, the California Preservation Conference provides access to an audience prominent in the field of historic preservation. The California Preservation Conference includes a dynamic mix of over 30 sessions, special events, networking activities and tours of exclusive sites and projects in the San Francisco Bay Area. This conference will bring together a diverse, multidisciplinary audience of more than 500 participants from across California.

The 34th Annual California Preservation Awards InterContinental Mark Hopkins Hotel, San Francisco, October 13, 2017.

The California Preservation Awards combines the Preservation Design Awards and the President's Awards at the same event. The Preservation Design Awards honor design excellence with a stunning selection of award winning projects and the President's Awards recognize individuals and companies who make outstanding contributions to historic preservation in California. This year's event will be held in the in San Francisco, celebrating 34 years of the Preservation Design Awards with a classic cocktail reception and dinner.

Over 25 Educational Events including Workshops, Online Courses and Special Tours

We invite you to join us and support the California Preservation Conference by becoming a sponsor. Your sponsorship is an easy and affordable way to promote your firm to a targeted professional audience while providing the needed funding to ensure the protection of historic sites across California through our statewide advocacy and education programs.
