

Join the California Preservation Foundation

The California Preservation Foundation is a network of more than 15,000 members and supporters who are committed to protecting our shared architectural and cultural heritage. We are a leader in preservation education and advocacy, responding to hundreds of requests for assistance and training more than 1,500 people each year.

We engage in advocacy to protect our shared heritage

From sponsoring preservation legislation to providing best practices, we proactively work to preserve our history. From the loss of our historic post offices, to documenting the storied sites of Route 66, to mapping LGBTQ heritage, we are the leading statewide advocacy organization fighting to document and protect our diverse cultural and architectural heritage.

We provide education to create informed advocates across the state

We have educated preservation professionals and local advocates for over 40 years, training more than 1,500 people annually. Our conference is the West Coast's largest and most respected preservation event, bringing together more than 500 people to learn and share best practices.

We celebrate California's history and recognize excellence in preservation

We promote the state's irreplaceable history with tours of uniquely Californian sites not typically seen by the general public, from a behind the scenes look at a historic cemetery to a tour of a potential National Heritage area. Our prestigious Preservation Design Awards are a statewide hallmark, recognizing the best in historic preservation.
