California Preservation Conference
Exhibitor Form
Embassy Suites Sacramento, May 17-20, 2020

Thank you for supporting the California Preservation Foundation

The California Preservation Conference attracts over 600 professionals, community leaders, planners, architects, engineers, public and private sector representatives, owners of historic properties, developers, landscape architects, attorneys, real estate professionals and preservationists from all over California.

Who should be an Exhibitor?
This is a rare opportunity to present your work to the state’s largest gathering of practicing design professionals and interested parties. Exhibitors typically include construction companies, architectural firms, photographers, antique and salvage dealers, and more.

Exhibitors receive prominent exposure within the conference registration area. Exhibit spaces are allotted on a first come, first-served basis and will likely sell out early so make sure to reserve your space now!

Information for Exhibitors
- Exhibitors will be located in the main lobby of the Embassy Suites Sacramento.
- Spaces in the exhibit hall are allotted on a first come, first serve basis.
- The exhibit space includes a 6’ table and 2 chairs. Power strip and wireless internet may be available for an additional fee.
